

CONTENTS

About the author xi
List of interviewees xiii
Acknowledgements xvii

Introduction 01

The purpose of this book 01
How to use this book 02
The study 03

01 Tomorrow's leaders: succeeding in a volatile and uncertain world 05

Organizations need good leaders 05
Capabilities for tomorrow's leaders 11
What does this mean for leadership development? 16
Summary 18
Notes 21

02 Moving at pace: the speed of leaders 25

The speed of leaders 25
Breadth as an accelerator 30
The time–cost–quality equation 32
Career management: laying the foundation for organization-wide acceleration 33
Summary 39
Notes 43

03 Breadth of experience: choosing roles wisely 45

Breadth of experience as an accelerator 45
Summary 61
Notes 64

- 04 Learning on the job: organizational development approaches 67
Introduction 67
When is breadth important? 70
Graduate programmes 71
Leadership programmes 75
Assigning critical job assignments 82
What makes leadership development programmes effective? 83
Summary 84
Notes 87
- 05 Navigating the pitfalls of acceleration: incomplete learning and burnout 89
The dark side of acceleration 89
Summary 105
Notes 108
- 06 Successful risk-taking: courageous people decisions in a risk-averse world 111
Taking risks in a risk-averse world 111
How to make calculated risk-taking work 114
Summary 129
Notes 133
- 07 Reflective learning: looking back to move forward 135
Taking a step back in a fast-paced world 135
A trait of leaders 137
Types of reflection 142
Challenges with reflective learning 145
How to make reflection a success 146
Summary 151
Notes 154

08 Supportive environments: essential safety nets 155

Social support 155

Sources of support 160

Summary 171

Notes 175

09 Women's careers: keeping the pace 177

Glass ceilings, labyrinths and glacial progress 177

Making accelerated leadership development work for women 182

Summary 194

Notes 197

10 Millennials: on the fast track from the start 201

Millennials: tomorrow's leaders 201

Career expectations 203

Summary 216

Notes 219

Index 223