

Contents

LIST OF FIGURES AND TABLES	ix
PREFACE	xii
Learning features	xviii
Website walkthrough	xx
Chapter 1 Organising Life and Work	1
Introduction	1
Managing time	2
Assignment time line	5
Task planning	7
Effective use of time	9
Making use of small passages of time	15
Using electronic means to get organised	16
Common habits of high-achievers	19
Chapter 2 How to Study	25
Introduction	25
How to get the most from lectures	26
How to get the most from seminars	35
Getting the most from learning resources	39
Microsoft OneNote	42
Chapter 3 Learning and Skills	53
Introduction	53
What is learning and what is a skill?	54
Learning styles	57
Active learning at university	60
Work-based learning	63
University culture and learning	66
Lifelong learning	68
Personal development planning	69
Keeping track of your learning	75
Chapter 4 What are the Key Skills of University Life and the Workplace?	79
Introduction	79
Academic skills	80
Key skills	87
Life skills	89
Graduate skills and the workplace	93
Stress and how to use it to your advantage	97

Chapter 5	Working in Teams	105
	Introduction	105
	Group and team theory	106
	Effective team behaviours	115
	Leading teams	118
	Types of teams	122
Chapter 6	Effective Reading Skills	127
	Introduction	127
	Types of reading	127
	Reading faster and more effectively	133
	Reading the right things the right way	139
	Keeping track of your reading	143
Chapter 7	Developing Good Writing Skills	151
	Introduction	151
	Develop good writing habits	152
	Understanding the macro approach to academic writing	154
	Planning what you will write	160
	Effective micro writing	169
	Understanding the structure of paragraphs	172
	Argumentative errors and how to avoid them	175
	Referencing	176
Chapter 8	Presentation Communication	185
	Introduction	185
	The nature of presentations	186
	Structuring presentations	187
	The presentation delivery	189
	Being reflective about your presentations	194
	Using presentation software	196
	Using multimedia	200
Chapter 9	Business Calculations	205
	Introduction	205
	The nature of business calculations	205
	Accounting for things	209
	More-complex business calculations	213
	Basic business data	214
	Trends, distributions and charts	221
	Working with business money	226
Chapter 10	Critical Reading and Writing Skills	233
	Introduction	233
	Critical reading	233
	Writing a 'critique'	244

	Seven heavenly actions in creating a sound argument that will stand up to critique	247
	Using evidence in writing	250
	Critical thinking at work	255
Chapter 11	Analysis and Evaluation Skills	261
	Introduction	261
	What are the higher-level skills?	262
	Analysis	263
	How do I analyse argument?	266
	What is data analysis?	269
	Evaluation	271
	How do I evaluate my own writing?	281
Chapter 12	Examinations and Assignments	289
	Introduction	289
	Overview of a possible approach to understanding the question	290
	Types of question	291
	Deconstructing the question	302
	My purpose in completing this assignment or examination	308
	Examinations	311
Chapter 13	Thinking and Memory Skills	317
	Introduction	317
	What is thinking?	317
	Different types of thinking	321
	Memory	329
Chapter 14	Word Processor Skills	339
	Introduction	339
	Basic Word skills	340
	Further Word skills	350
	Academic-related Word skills	356
	Business-related Word skills	359
	Using Word in teams	364
Chapter 15	Being Effective with Spreadsheets	369
	Introduction	369
	Basic Excel skills	370
	Excel business skills	378
	Research and analysis with Excel	386
Chapter 16	Project Management Skills	401
	Introduction	401
	Overview of project management	402

	The project process in detail	407
	Project timelines	416
	Communication	422
	Project management software	423
Chapter 17	Social Skills	429
	Introduction	429
	Six social skills at work	429
	Emotional intelligence	438
	Important skills in business	440
Chapter 18	Leadership, Coaching and Mentoring Skills	451
	Introduction	451
	Management	452
	Leadership	456
	Development	465
Chapter 19	Careers and ‘Futuring’ Skills	475
	Introduction	475
	Careers	475
	The transition into a career	481
	Graduate skills	484
	Visioning the future	491
	 Bibliography	 497
	 Index	 501