

CONTENTS

List of figures and tables ix

Acknowledgements xiii

How to use this book 1

01 The L&D professional 5

Introduction 5

The L&D profession 6

Understanding what is required of us 7

Knowing our own requirements 13

Fulfilling (and exceeding) requirements 15

Continuing professional development (CPD) 21

Selecting self-development activities 24

Recording CPD 29

What next? 33

References 34

02 The organisational context 37

Introduction 37

L&D, learners and the organisation 38

Understanding organisations 40

Why are organisations established? 41

Different types of organisation 43

Using analysis models 49

L&D's position within the organisation 54

The L&D contribution 58

What next? 66

References 66

03 Identifying learning and development needs 69

Introduction 69

Learning needs 70

Not learning needs 72

Key causes of learning needs 74

Why and when to identify learning needs 75

Learning needs analysis 77

Collecting and analysing learning needs information 79

Determining priorities 91

Presenting a recommendation for learning	91
What next?	94
References	95

04 Designing learning and development activities 97

Introduction	97
Designing L&D	98
Clarifying requirements and factors which affect design	99
Aims, objectives and learning outcomes	102
Determining and sequencing learning content	107
Selecting training and learning methods	110
Methods for monitoring, assessing and evaluating learning	123
Selecting and developing learning resources	124
Specifying the L&D session	128
What next?	132
References	133

05 Delivery: Face-to-face training and facilitation 135

Introduction	135
Delivery of L&D activities	136
Preparing for learning and development activities	138
Establishing the physical environment for learning	141
Opening learning sessions	145
Different L&D delivery styles	149
Delivery methods and techniques	151
Working with visual aids and resources	157
Facilitating learning in a group	157
Bringing learning sessions to a close	165
A final note about you	167
What next?	169
References	169

06 Delivery: Using technology 171

Introduction	171
The technological context	171
Technology and learning	172
The timeline of technology in L&D	184
Delivering live online learning sessions	184
Creating digital learning content	192
Summary	196
What next?	199
References	199

07 Delivery: Coaching and mentoring 201

Introduction 201
Coaching 202
Similar but different 206
The coaching process 209
Mentoring 211
The mentoring process 216
The potential benefits of coaching and mentoring 218
Coaching and mentoring practice – models 220
Coaching and mentoring practice – communication techniques 222
Recording coaching and mentoring activity 224
What next? 227
References 227

08 Delivery: Social and collaborative learning 229

Introduction 229
What is social and collaborative learning? 230
Social media apps and platforms 234
Selecting social media 240
Social and collaborative learning within an online programme 246
Curation 251
Social and collaborative learning across this book 256
What next? 259
References 260

09 Engaging learners 261

Introduction 261
Learner engagement 262
Factors affecting learner engagement 265
Psychology and learning 269
Neuroscience and learning 276
Strategies for enhancing engagement 285
What next? 290
References 290

10 Evaluating impact 293

Introduction 293
Why evaluate? 294
Defining evaluation 296
Evaluation theory and thinking 299
Evaluation – process and practice 301
Identifying what is to be evaluated (scope) 302
Clarifying the purpose(s) of evaluation 302
Identifying information for evaluation 306

Selecting evaluation methods	308
Some creative approaches to evaluation	311
Timing of evaluation	313
Designing evaluation tools	314
Collecting evaluation information	317
Analysing information	320
Presenting findings and making recommendations	321
What next?	324
References	324
Index	327

Downloadable resources available here:

www.koganpage.com/ldpw/4