

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements ix

PART ONE Why change? 1

01 The need for results from change 3

The cost of failed change 5

How to build successful change management capability 8

Change is not negative 11

References 12

02 Business alignment: The V Model 14

Theory of change 14

Business alignment 18

Case Study: Southeast Corridor Bank 26

Summary of key points 36

References 38

03 Current failures of behavioural change 39

No ownership of the change 40

Little understanding of what's needed after the change 42

Loss of control for those involved in the change 45

Little appreciation of the difference between reinforcement and reflection 49

Summary of key points 53

References 56

PART TWO TLA process and theory 57

04 The TLA process and applications 59

TLA evolution and results 59

TLA as a lever for change	63
Change requires reflection	64
Creating the environment for change	66
Stages of TLA	67
Summary of key points	71
Reference	73

05 Preparation 74

The anatomy of change	75
The need for the right mindset	78
The TLA Action Plan	82
The TLA Change Agreement	91
Summary of key points	93
References	97

06 ACTION conversation 98

TLA vs traditional coaching	99
The ACTION Conversation Model	101
Summary of key points	112
Reference	114

PART THREE Evaluation 115

07 Evaluation planning 117

The ROI Methodology	117
Purpose and objectives	120
Evaluation plans	125
Summary of key points	131
Reference	133

08 Data collection 134

Methods and instruments for data collection	135
Sources of data	149
Timing of data collection	152
Summary of key points	155
References	157

09 Data analysis 158

- Isolating the impact of change 158
- Converting data to monetary value 163
- Tabulating fully loaded costs 167
- Calculating ROI 168
- Defining intangible benefits 171
- Summary of key points 172
- References 174

10 Reporting results 175

- Detailed evaluation reports 175
- Meetings 178
- Routine publications 180
- Routine feedback on progress 181
- The communication plan 182
- A word of caution 183
- Guidelines for reporting results 184
- Summary of key points 187
- Reference 188

PART FOUR TLA in practice 189

11 Making TLA work: Skill set 191

- Asking power questions 191
- Being listening 196
- Using intuition effectively 198
- Summary of key points 205

12 Making TLA work: Guiding the conversations 208

- Helping identify and get in the 'gap' 209
- Solution for Scenario 1: OARBED 211
- Solution for Scenario 2: Off the Fence 217
- Solution for Scenario 3: The Panel of Three process 220
- Summary of key points 224
- References 226

13	How to roll out TLA in line with the alignment model	227
	WHO rolls out TLA?	228
	WHEN TLA needs to support change	236
	HOW to roll out TLA effectively	238
	Summary of key points	241
14	Case study: UNSW Innovations at UNSW Australia	244
	Opportunity for change	245
	The change: a new IT solution	247
	Business alignment and the approach to change	247
	Installation and training	249
	TLA after the change	250
	Common barriers that TLA helped overcome	252
	Outcomes and evaluation	253
15	Case study: Successfully managing a mature workforce	255
	Opportunity for change	255
	The change: workshops for mature staff	257
	Aligning with the business	257
	TLA after the change	262
	Outcomes and evaluation of the initiative	263
	References	264
	Appendix 1: Sample TLA Plan	265
	Appendix 2: Turning Learning into Action™ Change Agreement	266
	Appendix 3: Sample conversation to illustrate the flexible TION part of the ACTION model	268
	Index	278