

Contents

About the authors xiii

Prologue 1

1 The ups and downs of starting a new business 7

A story about a successful start-up 7

Monty's Bakehouse 7

The entrepreneurial landscape 12

Who? Where? How? What? 14

Focusing on those three key entrepreneurial cohorts 18

Have you got what it takes to succeed? 20

What no one talks about, but you need to know 24

Being top-boss for the first time isn't that easy 26

Why some businesses fail and others thrive 27

Notes 30

2 The start-up revolution 31

An overview 31

A paradigm for the 2020s 34

Helping start-ups to win 35

Perspectives and stories 41

Start-up stories from millennials 42

Start-up stories from women 49

Start-up stories from experienced executives 59

A more global perspective 67

Start-ups: lessons, surprises and insights – a summary 73

3 Pivots, refinements and surprises 77

What is a pivot? 77

How pivoting works in practice now 82

Pivoting and people	89
The big pivot	93
Pivoting in action	95
Five pivoters and their stories	97
Minor pivoting or just refining	105
Trends and revolutions	108
4 Pop-ups, questions and experiments	115
What is a pop-up?	115
Pop-ups in action	119
A pop-up story	120
Understanding markets and people	124
Pop-ups as cultural phenomena	133
Pop-ups create ideas and save money	137
Note	144
5 Start-ups: How to do them. How to succeed	145
Preamble to a toolkit	145
Content	147
Snapshot lessons from recent start-up people	147
Preparation	150
Planning	158
The basics	164
Money	169
Performance	173
Thinking	183
People	188
Customers	192
Running our business beyond start-up	199
A guide to presenting for new business	202
The story of an award-winning success	206

6 Conclusions and summary 211

Why this book matters 211

Finally, do you want to make a difference? Do you want to feel wonderful? 217

Bibliography 219

Index 227