

CONTENTS

Foreword by Mark Lever	vii
Foreword by Martin Halliwell	ix
Foreword by Richard Hawkes	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii

Introduction: A commercial journey 1

01 The business of charity 7

The power of commerce	7
The morality of profit	10
The trends reshaping the sector	15
Finding your focus	23
The road to success	27
Endnotes	30

02 Developing earned income 33

Inspiration, ideas and perspectives	33
Expanding from a successful base	37
Commercializing capabilities	43
Leveraging a charity brand	46
Beyond capability's comfort zone	49
Endnotes	53

03 Customer-centred models 55

Multi-sided business models	55
The untapped retail opportunity	60
Evolving an earned income ecosystem	65
The customer-centric strategy	68
Resolving the customer conundrum	75
Endnotes	80

04 The business of social change 81

A theory of change	81
A shortcut to the insights	84

Scalable and self-sustaining	87
Raising investment for impact	89
Turning ideas into income	92
Endnotes	94

05 Improving business performance 95

Finding the diamonds	95
Reassessing the business	96
Redefining your role	102
Developing differentiation	106
Changing the game	114
Endnotes	116

06 A strategy for commerce 119

The power of ambition	119
Beginning with the future	123
Creating a focused agenda	128
Maximizing opportunities	131
Seven commercial essentials	137
Endnotes	140

07 Keys to commercial success 141

Marketing demystified	141
Relationships built on value	146
Principles of ethical selling	152
Maximizing the value of the sale	156
The four-fold return on investment	162
Endnotes	165

08 Leading the charge 167

Shaking off the cultural shackles	167
Crossing the capability chasm	172
The disciplines of agile delivery	179
The role of the leader	183
Endnotes	186

Epilogue: The charity of business 187

Further reading	191
------------------------	-----

Index	193
--------------	-----