

CONTENTS

Introduction by the Italian Toyota Material

Handling organizations xi

by Danilo Verga

Preface xix

by Ambrogio Bollini

Foreword to the English Edition xxii

by Stefano Cortiglioni

Introduction xxiii

by Stefano Cortiglioni, Leonardo Salcerini and Danilo Verga

PART ONE From CESAB to Toyota Material Handling Manufacturing Italy 1 by Stefano Cortiglioni

Introduction 3

01 The Toyota Group 6

02 CESAB's history 12

03 The product 16

04 From Push to Pull 19

05 Production lines 22

Training of operators and the training dojo 27

06 The planning template 40

07 2S (Seiri and Seiton) 48

08 The system for feeding materials to the lines (logistics) 52

- 09 The organization within Toyota 66
- 10 Standardization 69
- 11 Quality 72
The Dantotsu Project 75
Case history 84
- 12 Visual management 90
- 13 Kaizen and efficiency 105
Kaizen Kobo 108
- 14 The bottom–up approach to ideas 110
- 15 The supply chain 115
Examples of implementation of TPS on TMHMI supply chain 120
- 16 Monozukuri and Hitozukuri (making people) 131
- 17 Toyota and union relations 138
- 18 Kaizen and financial results 142
- 19 TPS and Industry 4.0 148

PART TWO The operational implementation of the Toyota Way in the commercial and sales processes: the Toyota Material Handling Italia Convention 153
by Leonardo Salcerini and Danilo Verga

- 20 Foreword 155
The Toyota Academy case 155
Preparing the contents for the convention: the Toyota Academy – scope 155

- 21 The point of view of the dealers 158
Speech by Giovanni Speranza at the Toyota Material Handling
Italy Convention 158
- 22 The evolution of the Italian market for forklifts 164
Analysis of the variation in demand for forklifts in Italy
during the 2007–16 period 164
Performance of the Italian market for counterbalanced
forklifts 165
Performance of the Italian market for forklifts destined to large-scale retailers and logistics 165
Long-term analysis of the Italian market for forklifts
(2007–16) 165
The second-hand market and the development of the offer
through servitization 166
- 23 Speech by Leonardo Salcerini 168
Foreword 169
The Toyota Way vision of values and systemic perspective 171
Differential interpretation and the additive qualification process of the Toyota Way's value systems 172
The Toyota Way and Lean organization: differential, additional and 'multi-focal' implementation 172
One channel, three brands 174
GAP: Gestione Armonica Provinciale (provincial harmonized management) 176
Tangible transformation of commercial policies and business and sales approaches 177
Conclusions 179
- 24 The new ACCESS model 181
The interpretation of the Toyota Way and its contextualization in a medium-sized Italian company 181

PART THREE Appendices 185

Appendix A: Data 187

Appendix B: Reader's guide to the universe of Toyota Material Handling in Italy 194

by Leonardo Salcerini and Danilo Verga

*Business transformation and innovation process:
continuous success and the concept of cooperative
management 4.0* 195

A summary of the main indicators of continuous success of Toyota Material Handling in Italy 195

Continuous success and the value-generating wave of the new cooperative management 4.0 203

The continuous success of the Italian Toyota Material Handling organizations driven by the company's commercial sector 207

Glossary 209

Bibliography 215

Acknowledgements 217

Index 219