

CONTENTS

Read this first viii

1 Cover letters: the secret weapon in your job search 1

Six tactics that help your cover letter work 2

2 Six successful cover letters 6

A cover letter when you do not know of a specific job opening 7

When you do not know of a specific job opening 8

When you do not know of a specific job opening 9

The executive briefing 10

A cover letter in response to an online job posting 10

An executive briefing e-mail 11

E-mail response to online job posting (legal administrator) 12

Recruitment agencies and executive recruiter 13

Letter to a recruitment agency 14

Networking letters 15

The broadcast letter 16

Networking letter (computer and information systems manager) 17

Broadcast letter 18

3 Know the job, know your customer 19

The target job deconstruction 20

4 Develop your professional identity 23

Identifying the components 23

Transferable skills 24

Professional values 26

Business values 27

Identifying your competitive difference 27

Weaving your professional identity into letters 28

5 Elements of a great cover letter 30

Differences between electronic and print cover letters 30

Cover letter ingredients 31

What makes a cover letter work? 31
Starting the letter 32
When you have a referral or prior frame of reference 32
When you have no referral and no job posting 33
When you are responding to a job posting 34
Presenting yourself 35
Make it clear to the reader that you want to talk 37
A question of money 40
Contact information 42

6 Assembling your job search letter 43

Varying sentence structure 46
K.I.S.S. (keep it simple, stupid) 46
Voice and tense 47
Length 48

7 How to polish and edit your letters for maximum impact 50

Readability 51
How long should it be? 52
Avoid acronyms and professional slang 52
Give action to your statements with verbs 52
Vary sentence length 54
How to brighten the page 55
E-mail considerations 56
Traditional mail still works 60
Checklist 61
Proofing and printing 63

8 The plan of attack 64

Online job postings 64
Internet research tactics for finding names 65
Who to target in your job search 66
Networking 66
Names increase your options 74
Sending out your cover letters 74
A plan for a direct approach 75
This is not your last job search 75
Follow-up: a cautionary tale 76

Follow-up calls work 76
Use a contact tracker 77
Cover letters: the key to your job search 77

9 Sample letters 78