

Contents

Introduction 1

01 Safeguarding mental health 6

The law 7

Access to work 9

Remploy 9

The core mental health standards 10

What to do 12

Wellness Action Plans 14

Helping yourself 16

Notes 21

02 Redressing stress 23

A simple approach to stress at work 24

The six standards 25

Relaunching and refreshing the standards 27

Is there a problem at your workplace? 28

Stress indicators and ill-health conditions 30

What you can do 31

Notes 35

03 Bullying at the workplace and beyond 37

Bullying environments 49

What can you do? 41

Confronting your bully 45

Formal procedures 46

Cyber bullying 47

Legal redress 48

Notes 49

04 Suicide 52

Suicide is a workplace issue 52

Some background 53

The causes 54

Creating healthier workplaces 55

Warning signs 59

Notes 62

05 Occupational cancers and hazardous and dangerous substances 64

Cancer: some definitions 64

Occupational cancer: the scale of the problem 65

What causes occupational cancers? 68

Who is most at risk? 69

Preventing occupational cancers 71

Notes 73

06 Musculoskeletal disorders 75

Millions like us 75

What are musculoskeletal disorders? 76

What causes MSDs at work? 77

Preventing MSDs at work 79

Reducing your risk 80

Treating MSDs – and return to work 83

Notes 84

07 Disability discrimination and reasonable adjustments 86

Tackling discrimination 86

Applying for a job 87

Reasonable adjustments 88

Mental health adjustments 90

Remedies 92

Access to work 94

Notes 97

- 08 Physical health for an ageing workforce 98
Work, age and health 98
Am I old? 99
Busting myths and challenging stereotypes 100
An ageing population and ageing workforce 102
Health and older workers 104
Creating age-friendly workplaces 105
Notes 107
- 09 Working time 110
Your working time entitlements 113
Drivers' hours 118
Notes 121
- 10 Night and shift-work 123
The 24/7 society 123
Circadian rhythms and body clocks 123
Health and the body clock 125
Shift work and health 127
Healthier shift work 128
What can I do to improve my health and wellbeing? 132
What should my employer be doing? 133
Notes 134
- 11 Physical wellbeing and health initiatives 136
Other resources 144
Notes 145
- 12 Access to occupational health advice 146
Visiting your GP 146
OH specialists 149
Occupational health services 151

Fit for Work service	154
Employee Assistance Programmes	156
Persuading your employer	157
Notes	158

13 New ways of working 161

New work	161
The modern economy	162
Why poor quality work is bad for your health	164
Long hours, lone working and stress	165
Healthier work?	167
Notes	169

14 Young or inexperienced workers and apprentices 171

The legal protections	173
What to do?	175
Apprentices	177
Training providers	178
Notes	180

15 Accommodating specific conditions 182

About migraine	182
Why migraine is a workplace issue	183
About epilepsy	186
Cancer is a workplace issue	189
About diabetes	192
Notes	195

16 Migrant workers 197

Why you may be at particular risk	197
Help in different languages	200
What should you do?	201
Make sure you understand	202

Things to know	205
Gangmasters and labour abuse authority	206
Notes	209

17 Violence and abuse 211

One in ten	211
Which jobs are most at risk?	212
What can you do?	214
The four Ws	215
Ask yourself	218
Meeting strategies	220
If you have suffered violence	222
Notes	225

18 Gender and transgender issues 227

Gender and health at work	227
Transgender health at work	228
Pregnancy	230
Menopause	232
Notes	236

19 Realizing your rights 239

The general duties	241
The risk assessment	242
Protect and survive	242
Solving a health and safety problem	243
Join a union	245
Industrial Injuries Disablement Benefit	247
What will you receive?	249
Personal injury claims	250
Not a union member?	252
Notes	255

Index	257
--------------	-----