

CONTENTS

Foreword ix

Preface xi

Acknowledgements xiii

- 01 You and your money 1
- Your money situation – become more aware 1
 - One decision at a time; and sometimes they are hard 2
 - Your past influences your attitude to money today 5
 - Today’s influences on your attitude to money 6
 - Money does not make you happy 9
 - Your money personality 10
 - My reflections on money 12
 - Closing thoughts 12
- 02 The bigger picture 15
- The economy, politics and you 15
 - The impact of UK politics on you 16
 - The three fundamental economic principles 19
- 03 Earning money 23
- Your changing perspective 23
 - Why work? 24
 - Moving from education to work 25
 - What are your earning goals and dreams? 26
 - Thinking about your future 27
 - A few earning money thoughts 28
 - ‘Now’ decisions with a long-term earnings impact 30
 - Keeping pace with the changing world 35
 - Take control of your earnings destiny 35
- 04 Spending money 37
- Small spends add up 37
 - Immediate gratification 38

'Good' and 'not so good' spending 39
Pause and reflect 40
Escape routes 41
Missed opportunities 42

05 Keeping in control of your money 45

What's a budget? 45
Reasons not to create a budget 46
Collecting your information 47
What a budget looks like 47
More about setting budget targets 57
Your money, your way 60
Keep your tracking and targeting going... forever 61
Banking technology is coming to the rescue 62
Managing your money 63

06 Saving and investing money 65

What to do with savings – key concepts and terminology 66
Savings accounts 71
Individual Savings Accounts (ISAs) 73
Other investment opportunities 75
Pensions – preparing for retirement 80
It's down to you 83

07 Handling a money shortage 85

Your money habits 86
Your money values matter 87
Where to go to borrow money 88
Getting into and staying out of a mess 93
A learning opportunity 93

08 Financial basics: Pay related 95

Your payslip 96
Income tax 99
Important tax facts 101
Other earnings-related taxes 103
Communications with HMRC 104

Expect issues 107
 A few final words on taxes 108

- 09 Financial basics: Everything else 109
 The time value of money and the risk/reward trade-off principles 110
 Bank accounts, debit cards, overdrafts and interest rates 111
 Credit cards 121
 Store cards 127
 Buying on credit 128
 Borrowing money from a bank – loans 128
 Insurance – buying protection 132
- 10 Making big financial decisions 139
 Where to go for guidance 139
 Inadvertent commitments 140
 Transport – bikes 141
 Transport – cars, motorcycles and scooters 141
 Gap year or gap months 143
 University – go, no go, alternatives? 144
 All about housing 147
- 11 Getting and keeping a good credit score 163
 Who decides what your credit score/rating is? 163
 How a financial picture of you is developed 164
 How credit scores are calculated 166
 Keep it clean 167
 Your personal information 168
- 12 Top money pitfalls to avoid 169
 Take your time when making a big money decision 169
 Avoid the upward debt spiral 170
 Never mix short- and long-term debt 170
 Pay attention to details 170
 Remain in control 171
 Start saving early 172
 Manage a property you rent carefully 173
 Choose who you live with carefully 173

If you need to borrow money for a short time, check your options carefully and make sure you will be able to pay it back 174

Think before lending to, and borrowing money from, friends 174

Take steps to avoid identify theft and other crimes 174

And some good news 177

Index 179